Information to Help You Fill Out the Fidelis Care New York Authorization to Disclose Personal Health Information Form

By law, Fidelis Care New York must have your written permission (an “authorization”) to use or give out your personal medical information for any purpose that isn't set out in the privacy notice contained in the Fidelis Care New York handbook. You may take back (“revoke”) your written permission at any time, except if Fidelis Care New York has already acted based on your permission.

If you want Fidelis Care New York to give your personal health information to someone other than you, you need to let Fidelis Care New York know in writing.

If you are requesting personal health information for a deceased beneficiary, please include a copy of the legal documentation which indicates your authority to make a request for information. (For example: Executor/Executrix papers, next of kin attested by court documents with a court stamp and a judge's signature, a Letter of Testamentary or Administration with a court stamp and judge's signature, or personal representative papers with a court stamp and judge's signature.) Also, please explain your relationship to the beneficiary.

Please use this step by step instruction sheet when completing your Fidelis Care New York Authorization to Disclose Personal Health Information Form. Be sure to complete all sections of the form to ensure timely processing.

1. Print the name of the person with Fidelis Care New York.

   Print the Fidelis Care New York number exactly as it is shown on the Fidelis Care New York card (for example, 123456789).

   Print the birthday in month, day, and year (mm/dd/yyyy) of the person with Fidelis Care New York.

2. This section tells Fidelis Care New York what personal health information to give out. Please check a box in 2A to indicate how much information Fidelis Care New York can disclose. If you only want Fidelis Care New York to give out limited information (for example, Fidelis Care New York eligibility), also check the box(es) in 2B that apply to the type of information you want Fidelis Care New York to give out.

3. This section tells Fidelis Care New York when to start and/or when to stop giving out your personal health information. Check the box that applies and fill in dates, if necessary.

4. Fidelis Care New York will give your personal health information to the person(s) or organization(s) you fill in here. You may fill in more than one person or organization. If you designate an organization, you must also identify one or more individuals in that organization to whom Fidelis Care New York may disclose your personal health information.

5. The person with Fidelis Care New York or personal representative must sign their name, fill in the date, and provide the phone number and address of the person with Fidelis Care New York.

If you are a personal representative of the person with Fidelis Care New York, check the box, provide your address and phone number, and attach a copy of the paperwork that shows you can act for that person (for example, notarized Power of Attorney).

6. Send your completed, signed authorization to Fidelis Care New York at the address shown on your authorization form. A fax number is also provided.

7. If you change your mind and don't want Fidelis Care New York to give out your personal health information, write to the address shown under number six on the authorization form and tell Fidelis Care New York. Your letter will revoke your authorization and Fidelis Care New York will no longer give out your personal health information (except for the personal health information Fidelis Care New York has already given out based on your permission).

You should make a copy of your signed authorization for your records before mailing it to Fidelis Care New York.

8. Notice to law firms, record retrieval agencies, and third party insurance entities requesting a claims payment report for litigation or subrogation purposes, please note: you must submit a notarized authorization to receive records.
